Topic	WHERE IS GOD ?
Name	Holly Murtagh	Form	8.4

He is in the sky, the land and the sea,
He's in the earth, even you and me.
He is there when we need him each and every day,
God doesn't judge you for what you do or say.

Different religions believe a different thing,
Joy, excitement and sadness his actions will bring.
Christians, Buddhist, Muslims and Jews,
Methodists, Catholics, Atheists, Hindus.

They all have a unique thing to believe in,
No matter what your race or what your sin.
He will always surround us and be there to protect us.

He lives in the Church's meek and mild,
He flows down the rivers running wild.
He spreads far and wide from mountain tops,
To the furthest lake and the smallest raindrops.

He knows more than can ever be seen,
He is with us at birth, at death and all in between.
He is there when we laugh and there when we cry,
He is there when we succeed because we try.

God is the spirit in the space all around,
He is here every day yet never makes a sound.
He is in our minds, he is in our dreams,
He is forever on our heart.
He will never go and never leave so from him we'll never part.

Topic	WHERE IS GOD ?
Name	Ezekiel Thorp	Form	8.5

God may be with everyone, everywhere,
Maybe with animals, even a bear.
People say he's in heaven,
Watching over people in Devon.

Maybe he has a lair or even an office,
Maybe a private room he can cough in.
Suppose he is on a train,
Being in hiding like this may be his gain.

He has been in hiding forever,
You can't find him with a feather.
Lots of theories have been devised,
By some people been despised.

We'll probably never know where God is,
Maybe he has a career in showbiz.

But as to God's residence,
Maybe guarded by an electric fence.
We can keep on guessing where it is,
Maybe a drink that fizzes.
No that would be silly, he's too tall,
But what if God could be that small.

Where is God, is he here, is he there?
Some say that he's everywhere.
A lot may say that he's in your heart,
He's hard to get out; he's like a stab from a dart.

Atheist's say he doesn't exist,
When they think of God they just see mist.
God is a very powerful man,
And if you're good he'll be your number one fan.

He looks down on us from the sky,
Much higher than planes can fly.
He forgives your sins if you pray,
So if I were you I'd pray today.

He loves us all so much,
We're so close but can't touch.
Where is God, where can he be?
He's in the sky watching you and me.

Where is God?

Is he in the sky?

He is where you think he is,

He's there when you die.

He lives in heaven up in the clouds,

Heaven is a place no-one has found.

Or do you pray to the air

And there is nobody there?

Where is your God,

When you need him most?

When you are confused,

Or does he reach out and come close.

Men and women die every day,

And they die for us with no pay.

If there was a God would he let them die?

The thought of this makes us sigh.

Is God a Gamble?

This is what people say,

And they say this every day.

Yes, no or maybe,

Yes from that man no from that lady.

Nobody knows if he is real,

You just see how you feel.

Does he live in a castle in the sky,

Does he watch as birds all fly by?

Does he sit on the cloud listening to prayers,

And try to help people who are scared?

Does he look at war and know it's bad,

And knows it makes him sad?

Is God in the trees,

Or in the oceans?

Tell me please,

Where is God?

Is he in the sky?

He is where you think he is,

He's there when you die.

Where is God I always wonder,
When I have a think?
I always think he's in my friend,
When he gives me a wink.

Is he high in the sky,
Or in the deepest holes?
Is he inside everyone.
Deep inside our souls?

Is he on an iceberg,
Or in the deepest sea?
Is he in a fluffy cloud,
Or on the tallest tree?

Across the freezing Arctic,
And over desert sand.
His presence is still a mystery,
All across the land.

So God can be anywhere,
Well that is what I say.
So when I look up high,
To God we shall pray.

Topic	WHERE IS GOD ?
Name	Bethany Davidson	Form	8.4

Where is God
Where can he be?
In our hearts?
In a tree?

On a cloud,
Way up high?
So far up,
In the sky?

In places with happiness,
In places with tears?
In places with dreams,
In places with fears?

In places with hope,
In places with love?
In places as pure,
As the little white dove?

He is found everywhere,
The creator of this world.
With eyes that sparkle,
Like a snow white pearl?

He created planets like,
Jupiter and Mars.
He created things like,
Every single one of the stars.

He also created
rocks and fire,
As well as including,
the feeling of desire.

Keep him alive,
in your heart.
And from happiness,
you will never depart.

Where is God?
Where is God?
Is he in heaven,
or is he in hell?
Maybe even in a wishing well.
Atheist, Agnostic, a theist too,
What do you believe it's up to you?

Where is God?
Where is God?
Does he spend all day playing COD?
I very much doubt his friend is called Plod.
Now do you believe in him?
If you do you'll always win.

Topic	The Promise
Name	Jessica Roberts	Form	9.1

You should only make a promise if you are willing to take it,
You should keep it in your heart and never break it.
If they keep your promise and act as if it's a big thing, those are the people you really need.
Although you might not give as much trust,
they will keep your promise for that long,
it will start to begin to rust.

If you break their promise,
you will never get that lack of trust again.
As it could cause them so much pain,
Some people make promises so they never tell.
So if you have ever made a promise,
this will start to ring a bell.
Loved ones make promises as they are they about to get married, to show their love and trust is about to be carried.
Even though this might sound stupid,
this is most definitely cupid.
So never break a promise.
And if you want to know why read this.

You broke your promise yet gain,
now my heart is in pain.
You promised to love me till the end of time,
and now you tell me you cannot be mine.

I don't have the time to be messed around,
and now you're making me look like a clown.
You cast a spell upon my heart,
then you tell me you want a fresh start.

Without you're love my heart is in pieces,
but my love for you continues to increase.
The promise you made me is now long gone,
I don't know how I have managed to go on.
